

Energy Talks

Welcome to Energy Talks

Darren Hill (00:02):

Welcome to Energy Talks, the podcast where we speak to the people powering the energy sector. I'm your host, Darren, and in each episode I'll be bringing you conversations with our experts and people across the industry. You'll get to know our leaders, hear from our subject matter experts, and find out what's next in energy.

Josie Philips (00:19):

It was small steps to try and implement the business, and then we were awarded this huge contract.

Margaret Muller (00:23):

You actually have to be at the heart of where it's happening to make the real difference from the inside out.

John Pearson (00:27):

Let's look at the real world things that are stopping that happening and fix them.

Darren Hill (00:31):

So sit back, relax, grab a cup of coffee and learn more about the people who make Petrofac.
